Re: MUR 2314 (National Republican Senatorial Committee, et al.)

Dear Mr. Steele:

This letter, the enclosed Affidavit of Maryanne E. Preztunik, Comptroller and Director of Administration of the National Republican Senatorial Committee ("NRSC"), and related exhibits (collectively referred to as the "Response"), are submitted on behalf of NRSC and Richard G. Nelson, as Treasurer, in response to a complaint filed with the Federal Election Commission ("FEC") by Richard Segerblom and denominated Matter Under Review ("MUR") 2314.

Introduction

This case concerns the manner by which Republican donors directed contributions to Senate candidates through NRSC in the last election. The complaint correctly notes that certain earmarked contributions were listed as receipts on the April 15, 1986 FEC report filed by the Friends of Jim Santini. The complainant states that "the timing of these contributions . . . demonstrates that it would have been physically impossible for the allegedly conduited contributions to have been made to the Santini Committee without the exercise of direction or control by the RSCC [sic]." Complaint at 3.

RECEIVED
OFFICE OF THE

The complainant offers absolutely no evidence that any contributions were fraudulently reported, or that NRSC exercised any direction or control over the contributions. The complaint's basis for alleging wrongdoing is complainant's incredulity; his opinion that it is "difficult to believe" that the results reported in the Santini campaign's FEC reports could possibly be accurate. Id. at 4.

Accordingly, NRSC in this Response will detail the mechanics of a program which gave contributors the opportunity to direct their contributions to the Santini for Senate campaign during the period covered by the April 15, 1986 FEC report and thereafter. NRSC will also explain herein how the individual contributors selected Senate campaigns which they wished to support financially. This Response will outline a program which was designed to ensure that direction and control remained with the contributor at all times, in accordance with FEC Regulations, and which in fact ensured that NRSC never exercised direction or control over any contributions made through this program. This Response includes, of course, the physical proof of this process, in the form of written records, computer prints and letters (at Exhibits 2-12).

I. The Facts

The Friends of Jim Santini Exploratory Committee filed a statement of Organization on February 20, 1986. See Exhibit 8. On March 24, 1986, Congressman Santini announced his candidacy for the Republican nomination for the United States Senate from Nevada. See Complaint at 3. On March 25, 1986, and for every day through March 31, 1986, contributors directed the NRSC to forward to the Santini campaign all or portions of specific contributions they had already sent in response to NRSC-originated fundraising appeals. See Affidavit of Maryanne E. Preztunik, Comptroller and Director of Administration of NRSC, at Exhibit 1 (hereinafter "Preztunik Affidavit"), and Exhibits 3 - 7. Congressman Santini filed a Statement of Candidacy on April 4, 1986, and the Friends of Jim Santini filed an amended Statement of Organization on the same date (in which it dropped "Exploratory Committee" from its name). See Exhibits 9 & 10. The Friends of Jim Santini then filed its first report, for the period ended March 31, 1986, with the FEC on April 15, 1986.¹ See Exhibit 11.

Charles N. Steele, Esquire
March 10, 1987

The Friends of Jim Santini's April 15, 1986 report, which is the one complained of in this MUR, listed at Schedule A contributions from individuals received through NRSC during the period March 25, 1986 to March 31, 1986. Id. NRSC, as the "conduit or intermediary," also reported the "original source and intended recipient of the contribution," 11 C.F.R. § 110.6(c), to the FEC, the Secretary of the Senate, and to the intended recipient (the Friends of Jim Santini). See Exhibit 12.

NRSC had an "earmarking" or "conduit" program, which gave these contributors the opportunity to direct contributions to the Santini campaign. The program is described at length in the Preztunik Affidavit, at Exhibit 1. As that Affidavit sets forth, NRSC made arrangements during the 1985-1986 election cycle to enable contributors to earmark their contributions to specific candidates through a telephone contact, followed by a confirmatory letter. This program was known as the "direct to" program. Preztunik Affidavit at ¶ 3.

The "direct to" program reached NRSC contributors who had responded to NRSC-originated fundraising appeals, and whose contributions had been segregated in a special account upon receipt at NRSC. See Id. at ¶ 4. The program commenced with telephone calls from NRSC phone banks to these contributors. These calls gave contributors an opportunity to direct their contribution to a specific Senatorial candidate or candidates. Id. The contributor was thanked for the recent contribution, told that several specific campaigns were in need of assistance, and asked whether he or she wished to direct all or a portion of the contribution to any of those campaigns. Id. at ¶ 6. See also Script for Telephone Callers ("Script") at Exhibit 3.

When the contributors exercised their right to direct their contributions, a minimum of three candidates (and often four) were always identified by the NRSC caller. Preztunik Affidavit at ¶ 4. Contributors contacted by telephone directed their contributions in a variety of ways: to be divided between all of the candidates mentioned, to be divided between only some of them, to be sent to only one of them, to be sent to candidates not mentioned by the NRSC caller, or to be sent to no candidate. Id. at ¶ 6. The NRSC callers created and NRSC maintains computerized contemporaneous records of each contributor's instructions. Id. at ¶ 7. Ms. Preztunik states that:

Charles N. Steele, Esquire
March 10, 1987

If a contributor directed that a contribution be sent to a particular candidate or candidates, then the NRSC automatically forwarded the contribution to that campaign or campaigns without question. If the contributor did not direct all or part of his or her contribution to any candidate, then the contribution or remaining portion was considered a contribution to the NRSC, placed in the NRSC operations account, and so reported.

Id. at ¶ 6.

In the case of those contributors who did direct NRSC to forward all or part of their contribution to a specific candidate or candidates, NRSC then immediately sent a letter confirming the contributor's directions. Id. at ¶ 8. See also Sample Letter at Exhibit 5. The purpose of this letter was both to provide the contributor with a written confirmation of the telephonic designation, and to provide NRSC with an additional, separate, record of the contributor's instructions. Preztunik Affidavit at ¶ 8. Each letter was accompanied by a "Candidate Support Verification Form" which provided a potential additional record of the directed contributions for those individuals who took the time to sign and return the form to NRSC. Id. at ¶¶ 8 & 9; see also sample of Candidate Support Verification Form at Exhibit 6. At no time did any contribution placed in the direct-to program's special account remain there for a period of time exceeding ten days. Preztunik Affidavit at ¶ 6.

The Complaint specifically questions the contributions listed as received through NRSC on the Friends of Jim Santini's April 15, 1986 FEC Report. Ms. Preztunik has reviewed the following records for the dates covered by that report: (1) the computerized records of the contemporaneous reports created by the NRSC telephoners (see sample of such record at Exhibit 4), (2) the records of letters sent to contributors who designated all or a portion of their contribution to the Santini campaign, (see sample of such letter at Exhibit 5) (3) the Candidate Support Verification Forms returned to NRSC and currently stored there, (see sample of such form at Exhibit 6) and (4) Schedule B of the NRSC's FEC 1986 April Quarterly Report, detailing these contributions (see Exhibit 12). Preztunik Affidavit at ¶¶ 8 & 9. Ms. Preztunik states:

March 10, 1987

I have examined our computer records, and they indicate that each person whose contribution to the Friends of Jim Santini Committee was reported to the FEC on that Committee's April 15, 1986 FEC Report at Schedule A was, in fact, sent a letter acknowledging the direction by that individual of a specific contribution to the Santini campaign.

Id. at ¶ 8. In addition, NRSC has on hand "Candidate Support Verification Forms" returned to NRSC by at least 320 of the 545 contributors who directed NRSC to forward all or part of their contribution to the Santini campaign. Id. at ¶ 9.

The complaint specifically questioned the contributions of March 25, 1986. All contributions of that date to the Santini campaign are supported by documentary and computer proof in the form of the contemporaneous records of the caller and the confirmatory letter immediately sent by NRSC, plus signed Candidate Verification Support Forms from thirty-two of the fifty-four contributors listed for that day. Id. at ¶¶ 8 & 9.

Charles N. Steele, Esquire
March 10, 1987

NRSC telephone callers were under the constant supervision of either Ms. Preztunik personally, or an NRSC official responsible to her. Id. at ¶ 5. There was no instance in which an NRSC telephone caller directed or controlled a contribution, and there was no instance in which an NRSC caller disregarded a contributor's instructions. Id. As Ms. Preztunik explains in her Affidavit, "[t]he program was designed to give the contributors, and only the contributors, the opportunity to donate to the candidates of their choice." Id.

NRSC entered into agreements with campaigns which received earmarked funds through this "direct-to" program. See sample Agreement at Exhibit 2. The agreements provided that those campaigns would be billed on a monthly basis for their costs associated with this program, including the services of the telephone callers, the correspondence with contributors, and NRSC's overhead and other costs. Id., and Preztunik Affidavit at ¶ 11. Each campaign was billed a flat rate of $3 per earmarked contribution received through the "direct-to" program, on the independent advice of two different accounting firms. Id. All bills for this service were presented to all participating Senate campaigns, including Congressman Santini's, and have been paid in full.

II. The Law

Regulations promulgated by the Federal Election Commission clearly contemplate and regulate the transactions engaged in here by NRSC, the Friends of Jim Santini, and the individuals who directed their contributions to the Santini campaign.

The applicable FEC Regulations, under the heading "earmarked contributions", begin by stating that:

(a) All contributions by a person made on behalf of or to a candidate, including contributions which are in any way earmarked or otherwise directed to the candidate through an intermediary or conduit, are contributions from the person to the candidate.

(b) For purposes of this section, earmarked means a designation, instruction or encumbrance (including those which are direct or indirect, expressed or implied, oral or written) which results in all or any part of a contribution or expenditure being made to, or expended on behalf of, a clearly identified candidate or a candidate's authorized committee.

Charles N. Steele, Esquire
March 10, 1987

11 C.F.R. § 110.6 (emphasis added).

Having thus explicitly recognized that contributions may be "in any way" earmarked or "otherwise directed" to a candidate through an "oral" instruction to "an intermediary or conduit," and having defined "earmarking" as any "direct or indirect" "instruction" which "results in all or any part of the contribution . . . being made to . . . a clearly identified candidate," the Regulations go on to specify the requirements for such transactions, and the way in which they must be reported. The applicable portions state that:

The intermediary or conduit of the earmarked contribution shall report the original source and intended recipient of the contribution to the Commission . . . the Secretary of the Senate . . . and to the intended recipient.

Id. § 110.6(c). The Regulations then state that:

If the contribution passed through the conduit's account, disclose each contribution, regardless of amount, on schedules of itemized receipts and expenditures.

Id. § 110.6(c)(1)(i) (emphasis added); and

The intended recipient shall disclose on his next report each conduit through which the contribution passed.

Id. § 110.6(c)(ii)(3).

Charles N. Steele, Esquire
March 10, 1987
Page 12

Thus, the Regulations recognize and provide that contributions may be "passed through the conduit's account" [i.e., deposited, then withdrawn], and detail how such a transaction should be reported.

Finally, the Regulations provide that:

A conduit's or intermediary's contribution limits are not affected by passing on earmarked contributions except where the conduit exercises any direction or control over the choice of the recipient candidate.

Id. § 110.6(d)(1). (emphasis added).

IV. Argument

A. The Contributions Were Earmarked

As noted at the outset, the gravamen of the complaint is that it "would have been physically impossible" for the contributions reported by Friends of Jim Santini to have been legally directed to the campaign on March 25 through March 31, 1986, given the fact that Congressman Santini only announced his candidacy on March 24th. As outlined in detail in the factual presentation in Section I, above, NRSC had a well-organized, responsive, and carefully planned program to contact contributors on the days of March 25 through March 31, 1986 (and thereafter) and did precisely what the complainant hypothesized was "physically impossible." Contributors were contacted in the days following Congressman Santini's announcement. Some of them chose to earmark or direct all or a portion of their contribution to the Santini campaign. These "oral" directions and "instructions" (see 11 C.F.R. § 110.6(b)) were then confirmed in writing in a letter from NRSC to the contributors. Contributions which had "passed through" a special, segregated NRSC bank account (see Preztunik Affidavit at ¶¶ 4 & 6 and 11 C.F.R. § 110.6(c)(1)(i)) were sent to Friends of Jim Santini as directed.

Charles N. Steele, Esquire

All of the above transactions were reported as the FEC's Regulations require. See 11 C.F.R. § 110.6(c) and Exhibit 12.

B. NRSC Did Not Exercise
Direction or Control

The contributions questioned in the Complaint in this MUR were in fact made as reported to the FEC by NRSC and Friends of Jim Santini. These reported contributions were not made under the "direction or control" of NRSC. See 11 C.F.R. § 110.6(d)(i).

Charles N. Steele, Esquire
March 10, 1987
Page 14

Contributors were contacted by NRSC operators, calling under controlled and supervised circumstances, and speaking from a script. Preztunik Affidavit at ¶¶ 3,5. The Commission has been provided with a copy of that script. See Exhibit 3. NRSC callers informed each contributor that at least three (and often four) specific Senate campaigns could use financial assistance, and asked whether the contributor would like to designate all or a portion of the individual's contribution to any of those races. Id., and Preztunik Affidavit at ¶¶ 3 & 5.

The fact that NRSC suggested to donors the names of three or four specific candidates in need of contributions does not constitute direction or control. The FEC has ruled that suggesting a contribution to only one specific candidate is not a form of control provided "the individual contributor, not [the intermediary] makes the choice whether to make a contribution to the specified candidate." Advisory Opinion 1980-46, Fed. Election Camp. Fin. Guide (CCH) ¶ 5508 at 10,590 (1980) (emphasis added). Likewise in this case the choice was the contributors' and they did make choices, choosing to support one, two, three, or four of the mentioned candidates, others not mentioned, or none at all. Preztunik Affidavit at ¶ 6. NRSC's direct-to program was designed to give the contributor, and only the contributor, the opportunity to make this choice. Id. at ¶ 5. See also Script at Exhibit 3. The callers were supervised at all times by NRSC officials, and at no time did a caller direct or control a contributor's designation. Preztunik Affidavit at ¶ 5. Only if NRSC callers deliberately disregarded a caller's instructions could NRSC have exercised direction or control over these contributions, and NRSC supervisory personnel have sworn this did not occur. Id. at ¶ 5.

Charles N. Steele, Esquire

Contributors received a letter from NRSC confirming their directions to the telephone callers. See sample Letter at Exhibit 5, Preztunik Affidavit at ¶ 8. No evidence has been offered, or suggested, that any recipient of such a letter ever indicated that he or she had not given such directions. Indeed, a majority of the contributors took the trouble to sign and return a "Candidate Support Verification Form" to NRSC following receipt of NRSC's confirmation letter. Preztunik Affidavit at ¶ 9, see also Exhibit 7.

Charles N. Steele, Esquire

Thus, the Commission has ample un rebutted evidence to show that the named contributors in fact exercised the sole direction and control over their decisions whether to send contributions to the Santini campaign. See Exhibits 3 - 7. The NRSC did not exercise such direction or control, and therefore has correctly reported these transactions to the Federal Election Commission pursuant to 11 C.F.R. § 110.6(c)(1).

The fact that NRSC carefully complied with the law concerning direction and control is evidenced by the large number of contributions which were not sent on to candidates because the individual contributors had not exercised direction or control. As Ms. Preztunik has stated, only those contributions which were explicitly directed to specific candidates by individual contributors were forwarded by NRSC. Preztunik Affidavit at ¶ 6. Contributors who were not reached by NRSC callers, or who did not explicitly designate a specific candidate or candidates, were deemed by NRSC not to have taken the necessary affirmative actions to direct their contributions to any particular Senate campaign. Id. Their contributions were therefore not forwarded to any campaign, but were instead transferred to the NRSC operating account. Id. Ms. Preztunik has stated that only 53% of all funds initially placed in the direct-to segregated account were actually forwarded to candidates: the other 47% of the funds was transferred to NRSC's operating account because there had been no direction to a campaign by the contributors. Preztunik Affidavit at ¶ 6. Thus, NRSC only forwarded to Senate campaigns a limited portion of the larger pool of potentially available contributions.

This was a result of NRSC's painstaking compliance with the Commission's Regulations and previous Commission rulings. NRSC's practices, for instance, were in compliance with the General Counsel's Brief in MUR 1028, Council for a Livable World, which the Commission unanimously adopted and which stated that the conduit in this case had not exercised control because "the individual contributors, not the Council, determine whether or not contributions to candidates will be made." Brief at 4.

Charles N. Steele, Esquire
March 10, 1987

- C. The Regulations Allow Contributor's Checks to be Made Out to NRSC And Deposited in an NRSC Account, and This Process Does Not Alter the Contributor's Power To Direct the Contribution to a Candidate

As Ms. Preztunik has explained in her Affidavit, every contribution which was directed by contributors to specific candidates was first placed in a "special and separate" direct-to program account immediately upon receipt at the NRSC. Preztunik Affidavit at ¶ 4. The checks deposited in this direct-to account were kept segregated from all other NRSC funds, and then removed from that account for one of two reasons: First, if a contributor directed that all or part of his or her contribution be forwarded directly to a candidate or candidates, in which case "the NRSC automatically forwarded the contribution to that campaign or campaigns without further question" (Preztunik Affidavit at ¶ 6); or second, all or a portion of a contributor's contribution was not directed to a specific candidate or candidates, in which case "the contribution or remaining portion was considered a contribution to the NRSC, placed in the NRSC operations account, and so reported." Id.

Charles N. Steele, Esquire

As noted above in Section II ("Law") of this Response, the FEC's Regulations provide different reporting obligations depending on whether a contribution is passed on to a candidate in the form of a contributor's check, or is "passed through the conduit's account." 11 C.F.R. § 110.6(c)(1)(i & ii). Since the contributions at issue here "passed through" a [separate and segregated] NRSC account, the NRSC was obligated under the Regulations to report both their receipt and expenditure. 11 C.F.R. § 110.6(c)(1)(i). The NRSC fulfilled these reporting obligations. See, e.g., Exhibit 12.

The Commission's Regulations require that NRSC's reports include the name and mailing address of the contributor, the amount of the contribution (in some circumstances the contributor's occupation), the date the contribution was received, the intended recipient as designated by the contributor, the date the contribution was passed on to the intended recipient, and whether the contribution was passed on in cash, by the contributor's check, or by the conduit's check. 11 C.F.R. § 110.6(c)(4)(i), (ii) & (iii). NRSC's reports did contain this information. See Exhibit 12.

Charles N. Steele, Esquire

The Regulations do not state that the recipient of the contribution must be designated by the contributor before the check is received and placed in the conduit's account. There is no requirement in the Regulations that the contributor exercise his or her power of direction and control at any particular time, but only that the designation of a particular candidate must be made by the contributor, and at the contributor's sole direction and control, in order for the intermediary to be a conduit pursuant to 11 C.F.R. § 110.6(d)(1), rather than a "contributor."

Here NRSC's "direct-to" program met all of the FEC's requirements for an earmarked contribution: individual contributors orally directed NRSC to send contributions to specific candidates (and NRSC executed written confirmations of this designation); the individual contributors exercised sole direction and control over the choice of the recipient candidates, the contributions were passed through an NRSC account (and one kept segregated from other NRSC accounts), the contribution was forwarded to the candidate by the conduit's check, and all of the above was fully reported. There is no evidence that NRSC has not fully complied with the Commission's regulations in conduiting and reporting these earmarked contributions. As the General Counsel's

Page 21

Brief in MUR 1028 found, "[i]n terms of direction, the Council does select the candidates for whom it will make mailings and does suggest to its supporters that contributions be made." Brief at 4. However, "[a]fter a supporter has decided whether or not to act on the Council's suggestion, the Council cannot change the recipient or amount." Id. Here, NRSC gave individuals the same opportunity to earmark contributions to suggested candidates, and it never disregarded a contributor's instructions. Preztunik Affidavit at ¶ 5.

D. The Expenses of "Direct To" Were Properly Accounted and Paid

NRSC anticipated that the expense of the "direct to" program might constitute contributions to candidates who benefitted from it. Accordingly each campaign agreed in advance to pay NRSC the allocable portion of all costs associated with the program including telephone callers, correspondence and overhead. Preztunik Affidavit at ¶ 11. Upon the independent advice of two different accounting firms, NRSC established a cost of $3 per earmarked contribution. Id. Such costs were billed to and have been paid by all participating Senate campaigns, including Santini's. Id.

Charles N. Steele, Esquire
March 10, 1987
Page 22

Therefore, NRSC's expenses in conducting the "direct to" program have been accounted for and paid by all participants.

Conclusion

For the above stated reasons, the FEC should find no reason to believe that the National Republican Senatorial Committee and Richard G. Nelson, as Treasurer, violated the Federal Election Campaign Act of 1971, as amended, or the Regulations issued pursuant thereto.

Jan W. Baran

MUR 2314

AFFIDAVIT OF MARYANNE E. PREZTUNIK

MARYANNE E. PREZTUNIK, being first duly sworn, deposes and says:

1. I am Maryanne E. Preztunik, the Comptroller and Director of Administration of the National Republican Senatorial Committee (the "NRSC"). I have held the position of Comptroller of the NRSC since February of 1983, and have served as the Director of Administration of the NRSC since January of 1985.

2. I have been responsible for the financial operations of the NRSC since 1983.

3. In order to ensure that Republican candidates for the United States Senate would receive the broadest financial support allowable by law, the NRSC initiated a program known as the "direct to" program (hereinafter also referred to as the "program"). The "direct to" program was designed to enable NRSC contributors to direct their contributions to specific Republican Senatorial candidates through telephone conversations, followed by confirmatory correspondence. All campaigns which received directed contributions as a result of this program signed agreements with the NRSC. A sample copy of such an agreement is attached hereto at Exhibit 2.

4. When a check was received by the NRSC, pursuant to a fund raising appeal, it was either recorded as a contribution to the NRSC, and placed in the NRSC's operations account, or it was deposited in a special and separate account for the "direct to" program, predetermined by the size of the check, and other administrative factors. If a check was deposited in the "direct to" account, the contributor was immediately called by one of five or six telephone callers working in a in-house telephone bank. The contributor was asked if he or she wished to direct all or a portion of that contribution to a specific Republican Senatorial candidate. The names of a minimum of three, and often four, such candidates in need of help were mentioned as possible recipients of all or part of the contribution. (See sample script for such a call at Exhibit 3).

5. I had over-all supervisory responsibility for the NRSC employees making such calls, and frequently observed the telephoning process. At all times the telephone bank was under the continual personal supervision of either myself or other NRSC officials responsible to me, and calls were continually monitored. There was no instance in which an NRSC telephone caller directed or controlled a contribution. The program was designed to give the contributors, and only the contributors, the opportunity to donate to the candidates of their choice. There was no instance in which an NRSC caller disregarded a contributor's instructions.

6. As is evident from the sample script attached hereto at Exhibit 3, the contributors were asked whether they wished to direct their contributions to any one of three or four mentioned candidates. Contributors were, of course, free to direct all or a portion of their contribution to other candidates not specifically mentioned, or to no candidate. Contributors exercised all of these options throughout the program. I am familiar with contributors who directed their contributions to be evenly split between all mentioned candidates, contributors who selected only one, two, or three of the mentioned candidates as recipients of their contributions, contributors who directed their contributions to other 1986 candidates (including those from their own or neighboring states or those they particularly supported), and contributors who were unable or unwilling to make any designations. If a contributor directed that a contribution be sent to a particular candidate or candidates, then the NRSC automatically forwarded the contribution to that campaign or campaigns without further question. If the contributor was not reached by a NRSC caller, or did not direct all or part of his or her contribution to any candidate, then the contribution or remaining portion was considered a contribution to the NRSC, placed in the NRSC operations account, and so reported. I have examined NRSC records for this "direct-to" program, and have determined that fifty-three percent (53%) of all contributions placed in the program's special segregated account were then directed to specific Senate campaigns by the contributors, and forwarded to those campaigns. Forty-seven percent (47%) of all contributions initially placed in the direct-to segregated account were never directed to any specific campaign by the contributors, and were therefore transferred to the NRSC's operating account. At no time was a contribution held in the direct-to special account for a period of time exceeding ten days.

7. If a contributor stated that he or she wished to direct all or part of the contribution to a particular candidate or candidates, the person making the telephone contact with the contributor made a contemporaneous record of the direction on a form created for that purpose. (A sample page of NRSC computer records of these forms is attached at Exhibit 4.)

8. At the end of each day during which members of the "direct-to" program's telephone bank team had telephoned contributors, the names of all contributors who directed a contribution(s) to a specific candidate(s) were assembled. Every contributor who had directed funds to any candidate was then sent a letter by the NRSC confirming the designation(s). This letter provided a written record of the telephonic direction for the contributor's files, and provided the NRSC with an additional, separate, record of the contributor's instructions. Samples of the letters which were sent are attached hereto at Exhibit 5. I have examined our computer records, and they indicate that each person whose contribution to the Friends of Jim Santini Committee was reported to the FEC on that Committee's April 15, 1986 FEC Report at Schedule A was, in fact, sent a letter acknowledging the direction by that individual of a specific contribution to the Santini campaign. As an extra precaution in this documentation, each contributor who directed a contribution to a candidate was also sent a "Candidate Support Verification Form" (hereinafter "verification form") and asked to sign and return it to the NRSC. Samples of returned verification forms are attached hereto at Exhibit 6.

9. I further reviewed the NRSC's records for returned "verification forms" for the entire March 25 - March 31 period complained of in MUR 2134, including specifically the date of March 25, 1986 (which is the subject of a portion of the complaint). I have determined that, of every contributor who directed a contribution to the Santini campaign and therefore received an acknowledgement letter from the NRSC, with a verification form enclosed, at least 320 of those 545 contributors did in fact take the time to sign and return verification form to the NRSC. These forms are available for review if desired. Of the 54 contributors listed on the Santini for Senate Committee's April 15, 1986 FEC Report at Schedule A, 32 returned a signed verification form to the NRSC. Copies of those 32 forms are attached hereto at Exhibit 7.

10. The "direct-to" program was utilized through the 1986 campaign period. To the best of my knowledge, 32 of 34 1986 Republican Senatorial candidate received directed contributions through this program.

11. I solicited and received opinions from two accounting firms of the value of the services provided to Republican Senatorial candidates through the "direct to" program. Pursuant to their advice, the NRSC established a flat charge of three dollars ($3) per designated contribution which was forwarded by the NRSC to a candidate's campaign. This fee, which paid for the services of the telephone callers, the letters and verification forms mailed to contributors who directed a contribution to a candidate, and an allocated portion of the Committee's overhead and other costs, did not vary with the size of the contribution forwarded to Senate candidates, but was rather a $3 flat fee per contributor-directed contribution. Bills for these expenses were presented to candidates on a monthly basis, and all Senate campaigns, including Congressman Santini's, have paid their bills to the NRSC in full.

12. This Affidavit is to be submitted to the Federal Election Commission in connection with MUR 2314, and the Exhibits referred to herein, which are to be submitted to the FEC as attachments to the National Republican Senatorial Committee's Response in that MUR, are numbered to follow the sequence of Exhibits included in that response.

Maryanne E. Preztunik

Signed and sworn to before me

Direct-To Program Agreement

The Direct-to Program is an effort organized by Sen. John Heinz and the National Republican Senatorial Committee for the general election benefit of individual candidates. Individual contributors from the NRSC's masterfile will be able to earmark contributions for a specific Senate general election campaign. Most Direct-to participants will be contributing individual amounts of $100 or more.

By law, the NRSC is allowed to contribute approximately $11 million to candidates through coordinated dollars. To maintain a Republican majority in 1986, Republican candidates will need more help. The NRSC's Direct-to Program allows individual contributors to specifically name a campaign (or campaigns) as the "earmarked" recipient(s) of a contribution. In this manner, the NRSC hopes that additional money can be made available to Senate general election candidates.

Money received through the Direct-to Program can only be deposited in the campaign's general election account and is to be used exclusively for the general election campaign. Each earmarked contribution must be applied against the contributor's limit to the campaign's general election. All Direct-to money is sent to the campaign through the NRSC. Although the NRSC will send a thank you letter to each of the contributors, a separate letter from the campaign to the contributor would be appreciated and will help establish a pattern of communication that will aid in resolicitation.

One person on the NRSC staff will serve as an information source for campaigns and in-house staff concerning Direct-to matters. Dina Beaumont will serve initially in this capacity, and can be reached at (202) 347-0202. Her responsibilities will include:

- * Serve as liaison between the Direct-to Program and campaigns.
- * Advise and assist campaigns with Direct-to concerns.
- * Work with campaigns to verify adequate record-keeping and FEC compliance concerning the Direct-to money to campaigns.
- * Announce the receipt of incoming Direct-to money by campaigns.
- * Follow-up thank you notes from campaigns.

To alleviate confusion, Dina will be the only NRSC staff member announcing Direct-to contributions to campaigns.

Federal Election Law requires that a campaign must assume the direct fundraising costs associated with an effort such as the Direct-to Program. Participating campaigns will be billed on a monthly basis on the 10th of each month for money directed in the previous calendar month. Campaigns will be charged on a 'per contributor' basis, with the actual charge determined by the direct fundraising costs associated with a particular mailing/event. (The per contributor charge will be in the $3-$4 range.) Payment will be due from the campaign's general election account thirty days from the date of invoice.

To assist NRSC and campaign compliance with the Federal Election Campaign Act, up to five percent (5%) of the NRSC's maximum coordinated expenditure on behalf of a state will be escrowed until October 20 of the election year. If all payments have been made for the Direct-to Program, all coordinated money will be available for varied uses (i.e., media, mailings, office support). If payments have not been made, the escrowed coordinated money will be used to pay the campaign's invoiced portion of the direct costs associated with the Direct-to Program.

On behalf of the _____ campaign, I hereby acknowledge receipt of the above information pertaining to the NRSC's Direct-to Program and the _____ campaign's participation in the program.

INTRODUCTION

Hello, Mr. _____, my name is _____.

And I'm calling on behalf of President Reagan to offer his personal "thank you" for your recent contribution to the Republican Presidential Task Force.

I am calling to see if you would like THAT contribution we received yesterday forwarded to a specific candidate.

As of today, there are three candidates in particular need of help, our best guess is that these three races can be prioritized as follows:

Our top priority is	Jim Santini of Nevada
The 2nd priority is	Mack Mattingly of Georgia
The 3rd priority is	Bob Kasten of Wisconsin

Mr. XXXX, which of these three candidates would you like your contribution to help?

-----wait for response-----

Thank you Mr. XXXX, I'm sure the president will be very pleased with your choice.

And thank you again for your very generous support of the Republican Presidential Task Force, and also for helping (candidates name).

Secondary Phrases

For your contribution to be forwarded to a specific candidate Federal Election Law requires that the choice be yours.

The president has asked the Task Force to help these three candidates at this time.

JANN OLSTEN
EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR

National Republican Senatorial Committee

March 27, 1986

Mrs. Edna M. Megquier
133 Ledge lawn Avenue
Bar Harbor, ME 04609

Dear Edna:

On behalf of President Reagan and my Republican colleagues in the Senate, I want to personally thank you for your contribution to the Republican Presidential Task Force. By your electing to assist candidates in specific races, and through your continued participation in the Task Force, I'm confident our Senate majority will remain under Republican leadership.

In accordance with your wishes, your earmarked contribution of $30.00 is being sent directly to Jim Santini.

Jim is facing a potentially tough Senate campaign this year and, right now, is in need of additional financial support.

Your $30.00 "Direct To" contribution today will make a victory on November 4, 1986, much more likely.

Again, thank you for your continued support and unselfish generosity.

Sincerely,

John Heinz
